

Rafting, Zip Lines and More!

A Class Outing to Lake George, New York 2 Days/1 Night

Zip along the treetops, ride the rapids of the Sacandaga River and enjoy more thrills, chills and laughs at a renowned amusement park. This fun-filled, adventurous outing will have the students “racing” for more!

Day One:

This morning depart for Hadley, NY where you will embark on a 2-hour whitewater rafting adventure. Hit the river in the newest equipment, on this refreshing and thrilling ride through the rapids, along with trained guides.

Depart Hadley after rafting and travel just a short distance to the renowned Great Escape, Six Flags Amusement Park. No matter what kind of rides you're into, The Great Escape offers great fun for thrill-seekers of all ages. From Mega Wedgie, the awesome raft ride, to the Comet, the 80-year-old wooden rollercoaster, to Sasquatch, the thrilling 192-foot drop tower, you are certain to have a day to remember! Have lunch, via included voucher, at a concession stand at the park.

Check into your conveniently located Lake George hotel. There will be time to unpack and refresh before the evening's activities.

After a day of thrill and adventure, it's time for a hearty dinner. The Golden Corral's unending buffet and grill offers hot and cold dishes, carving stations and bakery. Make sure to save room for the array of sweets at the dessert station.

After dinner, test your skills with an evening of Go-Karts, Miniature Golf and Laser Tag.

Return back to the hotel.

Day Two:

After a hearty breakfast in the hotel, pack your bags and check out.

This morning travel to Bolton Landing, NY and experience adrenaline-filled fun as you zip, wobble and swing into action on the largest aerial treetop adventure park in the United States. Have a quick snack at the facility's concession to tide you over until lunch.

Depart Bolton Landing mid-afternoon and begin your travels back home. Stop for an included fast-food lunch along the way.
